The Queens of Animation is also a crisp reflection on Hollywood's charged and changing relationship with beauty, race, and fame." -- Margot Lee Shetterly, New York Times bestselling author of Hidden Figures. Show More Show Less. Frequently bought together.

The Queens of Animation: The Untold Story of the Women Who

The Queens of Animation is the story of Disney's female workforce over the course of the company's history. Like other works discussing women's history in the 20th century this one follows the big historical events: struggles through the depression, expansion of women's roles in the WWII homefront, post war regression and changes brought/ forced by technological advance.
